Mark your calendar!

Student Poster and Presentation Day
Friday, May 2, 2014
Students from across the disciplines present their research and creative projects.

A Day in May
Wednesday, May 14, 2014
Faculty who received CELTSS funding share their scholarly and creative work.

---

Spring 2014 Lyceum Lecture

CELTSS

“Minorities in China”

Dr. Mary-Ann Stadtler-Chester

Thursday, April 10, 2014
McCarthy Center, Forum
Framingham State University
5-7 p.m.
“Minorities in China”

Dr. Mary-Ann Stadtler-Chester
Associate Professor
Department of World Languages
Framingham State University

Myth: The Chinese all look alike.
Myth: The Chinese all eat the same food.
Myth: All Chinese people speak Chinese.

Seen from the outside, China is perceived to be a homogeneous country. But, with 55 ethnic minority groups living within its borders, China is a very diverse country. This discussion will explore the uniqueness of these cultures as well as how they fit into Chinese society.